
Justice ACED Academy

designs policies and practices that

- (1) close racial and socioeconomic achievement gaps in reading, math, and science;
- (2) create safe neighborhoods for children, teens, and adults;
- (3) create healthy neighborhoods for children, teens, and adults;
- (4) enhance healthy relationships within families;
- (5) enhance mental health including reductions in depression, anxiety, stress, hostility, and addictions;
- (6) enhance physical health including reductions in hypertension, type-2 diabetes, and obesity;

and we collaborate with agencies that

- (1) offer affordable housing;
- (2) improve existing housing stock;
- (3) increase level of home ownership; and
- (4) attract and cultivate entrepreneurial start-ups.

In general, we are committed to the development and promotion of policies and practices that deliver Justice (Outcome Equities) and Freedom (Fair Access to the nation's fountains of opportunity) even in initially unjust and unfair places.
